

Carolyn Lumber served as tennis director and head pro from 1983-1998. She grew up playing at The Irvington Club and is one of the many tennis greats to have played at Irvington.